NSWPF Confidentiality Deed Poll

You enter into this Deed on behalf of yourself, your Representatives and your Related Bodies Corporate for the benefit of us and in consideration for our agreement to disclose information relating to the Approved Purpose.

1 What is the Confidential Information?

- 1.1 The Confidential Information governed by this Deed is the Information disclosed or made available by or on behalf of the NSWPF in connection with the Approved Purpose including the Tender Documentation together with any information (whether or not recorded in any form) directly or indirectly derived from that information. .
- 1.2 It does not include information which:
 - (a) is or becomes part of the public domain, unless information is in or becomes part of the public domain because it has been disclosed without our consent;
 - (b) is lawfully known to you on a non-confidential basis before being disclosed by us;
 - (c) is provided to you by another person who is in possession of it lawfully and can disclose it to you on a non-confidential basis; or
 - (d) independently developed by you without access to the Confidential Information.
- 1.3 The Confidential Information always remains NSWPF's property. This Deed does not give you any right, title or interest in it.

2 Your use of Confidential Information

- 2.1 You must use the Confidential Information solely for the Approved Purpose. You must not use it for any other purpose, or except in accordance with clauses 2.2 and 2.3, allow any other person to do so without our written consent.
- 2.2 You must not disclose the Confidential Information, and must ensure that your Representatives do not disclose it, to any other person except as required for the Approved Purpose and on a confidential basis on the same terms as this Deed. You will remain responsible to us for any person to whom you disclose the Confidential Information.
- 2.3 You may disclose the Confidential Information as strictly required by law but you must inform us first and seek to limit the terms of that disclosure in any manner we reasonably request.
- 2.4 You must take reasonable steps to protect the Confidential Information and keep it secure from unauthorised access.
- 2.5 You must inform us as soon as possible if:
 - (a) you become aware or suspect that there has been any unauthorised disclosure; or
 - (b) you are required to disclose the information by law.
- 2.6 You must return or destroy (at our option) the Confidential Information, and all copies of it when you no longer require it for the Approved Purpose or on our earlier request.

3 General

- 3.1 This Deed contains the entire agreement between both of us in relation to the Confidential Information and supersedes all other discussions, representations and statements about the Confidential Information.
- 3.2 This Deed may be varied or waived only if we both agree in writing.
- 3.3 You must not assign your rights or obligations under this Deed without our prior written consent.
- 3.4 If we do not exercise a right at any time in connection with a default under this Deed, this does not mean that we have waived the right or cannot exercise it later.

4 Privacy

If any personal information is disclosed to you by us or on our behalf, you must comply with our privacy policy (as we make available to you) and the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) as though you are a public sector agency.

5 Governing law

The laws of New South Wales, Australia, govern this Deed and we both submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that place and the courts competent to determine appeals from those courts.

6 Indemnity

You undertake to indemnify us and our Representatives against all liability or loss arising directly or indirectly from, and any costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with:

- (a) any breach by you of this Deed; or
- (b) any act or omission by any of your Representatives which, if done or omitted to be done by you, would be a breach of your obligations under this Deed.

7 Publicity

The Recipient may not refer to us directly or indirectly in any media release, public announcement or public disclosure relating to the Project or its subject matter, including in any promotional or marketing materials, customer lists or business presentations, without obtaining prior written consent from us.

8 End of this Deed

This Deed ends when:

- (a) we notify you in writing it ends; or
- (b) it is replaced by a later Deed or other legal document which protects the Confidential Information to the same or similar degree; or
- (c) the Confidential Information is no longer confidential (but not through your breach).
