NSW Health is requesting sponsorship proposals for the 2008 NSW Health Awards, with options to extend to 2009 and 2010 by mutual agreement. The Awards program aims to foster innovation and knowledge sharing about advancements in promoting health, quality healthcare and improving health system performance.

An attractive package of Sponsor entitlements is offered, particularly a high profile at the 400 person Awards Dinner on Friday 31 October 2008 at the Australian Technology Park (ATP). The Awards Dinner is the most prestigious event in the NSW Health calendar, recognising the contributions of Health teams from across the State.

Other valuable sponsor entitlements include appropriate acknowledgements: logo and name on Awards trophies, plaques, certificates, Winners & Finalists publication and on the Awards web page, and; Trade Exhibitor entitlements at the annual NSW Health Expo (on 31 October at the ATP, preceding the Awards Dinner).

Potential sponsors are encouraged to include proposals that would add interest, impact, value or other benefits to the NSW Health Awards.

Submissions: Responses in electronic form only will be accepted, and must be lodged through the NSW Health Tenders Website at <https://tenders.nsw.gov.au/health>.
